
High Frequency Trader Resume

Job Objective

To use my skills and experience as High Frequency Trader and contribute towards the growth of the organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Exceptional experience in high frequency trade in proprietary environment
 - Deep knowledge of various programming languages
 - Huge knowledge of statistical and systematic trading
 - Remarkable ability to develop data access queries
 - Familiarity with algorithmic and High Frequency trading
 - Proficient with broker tech and eSpeed platforms
 - Outstanding ability to multi task and prioritize work
 - Good skills to perform regular research
 - Excellent skills to perform trade accurately in electronic environment
-

Professional Experience:

High Frequency Trader
Rimrock Associates, Inc., Lansing, MI
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Developed new strategies for trade and perform tests.
- Designed high frequency trade logic for various accounts.
- Performed team research with quantitative hedge team.
- Administered all new and existing black box systems for architecture and development.
- Maintained records of trading activities such as profit and loss.
- Monitored exchange connectivity of system on behalf of trading clients.
- Managed all foreign exchange activities on behalf of company.

High Frequency Trader
The Hagan-Ricci Group, Inc., Lansing, MI
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Coordinated with developers and traders in frequency market.
 - Assisted in reconciliation of trade market activities.
 - Developed trading strategy for active development.
 - Analyzed and perform tests trading process environment.
 - Assisted to resolve all analytical issues for trade implementation.
 - Performed regular research with high frequency traders to improve predictive signals.
 - Recommended improvements to processes to optimize results.
 - Assisted to resolve all issues faced by clients.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Finance
Hodges University, Naples, FL

Build your Resume Now