
High School History Teacher Resume

Job Objective

To secure a position as a High School History Teacher in a well established campus with a stable and productive environment.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Successful teaching experience with middle and senior high school students
 - Operational knowledge to instruct middle and high school History
 - Thorough knowledge to translate concepts of History into the middle and high school instructional program
 - Immense ability to foster positive relationships
 - Remarkable ability to carry out instruction to meet varied needs of the students
 - Strong skills in instructional methods and strategies
-

Work Experience:

High School History Teacher, August 2005 – Present
Reagan High School, Moorpark, CA

- Provided an academically rigorous curriculum aligning with specific standards.
- Prepared lesson plans and outlined syllabus.
- Fostered proficiency of oral and written expression, applications and ethics.
- Planned and facilitated field studies to support and enhance classroom curriculum.
- Maintained accurate student grades, records and portfolios.
- Offered input and supported grade level, subject matter.

High School History Teacher, May 2000 – July 2005
Westbury High School, Moorpark, CA

- Evaluated classroom instructional activities consistent with district curriculum.
 - Diagnosed and prescribed learning and training programs for individual pupils.
 - Implemented comprehensive instructional and activities program.
 - Maintained classroom discipline utilizing effective classroom management skills.
 - Prepared and maintained effective weekly lesson plans.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in History, Green Mountain College, Poughkeepsie, NY

Build your Resume Now