

---

High School Science Teacher Resume

---

Job Objective

Position as a High School Science Teacher where my experience will add significance to operations within the school.

---

Work Experience:

High School Science Teacher, August 2005 – Present
RFK Lancaster School, Alta, IA

- Educated students by planning and developing course of study in accordance with established curriculum guidelines; school district and state requirements.
- Presented lesson plans utilizing a variety of techniques.
- Monitored, assisted, corrected, and graded student results.
- Prepared assignments and tests for in-school preparation and homework.
- Conducted standardized tests in accordance with policies and law.
- Ensured to maintain safe, secure, and healthy educational environment.

High School Science Teacher, May 2000 – July 2005
Heritage High School, Alta, IA

- Planned a program of study meeting the individual needs of students.
  - Created a classroom environment conducive to effective learning process.
  - Developed reasonable rules of classroom behavior and procedures.
  - Enforced the student discipline and code of conduct.
  - Established clear objectives for all lessons and units
  - Maintained accurate and complete records as required.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Successful high school teaching experience in science
  - Thorough knowledge of the innovative and inquiry-based teaching approaches
  - Exceptional knowledge of the physical science
  - Remarkable ability to interact positively with and motivate students
  - Outstanding ability to use data to plan and adjust instruction
  - Effective communication skills, both of written and verbal formats
  - Superior technical and audio-visual based teaching skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Science, South Georgia College, Douglas, GA
Master's Degree in Science, Central Texas College, Killeen, TX

Build your Resume Now