
High School Theatre Teacher Resume

Job Objective

A position that can lead to a lasting relationship as a High School Theatre Teacher.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Successful experience working as a theatre teacher at high school level
 - Exceptional knowledge of producing high school musical and play productions
 - Solid knowledge working with community, students and institutions
 - Immense ability to teach acting, playwriting, directing, stage tech etc
 - Superior instructional skills; and curriculum and instruction related skills
-

Work Experience:

High School Theatre Teacher, August 2005 – Present
Kerr High School, Fort Smith, AR

- Taught teaching theatre courses at the high school levels and tutored acting skills and techniques to students of varied ages.
- Adapted course of study and training methods to meet student's needs and abilities.
- Trained the students in enunciation, diction, voice development, and dialects.
- Utilized speech drills, voice exercises, explanation, lectures and improvisation.
- Used the services of non-performing students for stage constructing, painting moving, scenery, operating stage light and sound equipment.
- Managed to teach students about character development and personality projection.

High School Theatre Teacher, May 2000 – July 2005
Franklin High School, Fort Smith, AR

- Tutored elements of stagecraft, stage makeup, costume craft, play writing etc.
 - Demonstrated vocal and body expression to teach acting styles.
 - Assigned backstage production tasks to the nonperforming students.
 - Developed lesson plans balancing Theatre Arts program/s.
 - Ensured that the preparation, rehearsal, and instruction be accomplished.
 - Conducted audition among students to select, cast and assign characters; and carried out rehearsals and drilled students to ensure that they master it.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Theatre Arts, Palo Alto College, San Antonio, TX
Master's Degree in Theatre Arts, Central Texas College, Killeen, TX

Build your Resume Now