
High Voltage Electrician Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a position as High Voltage Electrician with esteemed company where I can further my career and help company meet expectations.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Huge experience in the maintenance and operation of high voltage distribution equipments
 - Ability to stand for long periods of time
 - Skilled at working with high voltage distribution systems
 - Ability to perform variety of work in the common maintenance trades
 - Ability to do the work of a journeyman building trades electrician
 - Ability to lead employees engaged in technical work
 - Wide knowledge of all maintenance and construction trades
 - Familiarity with hazardous, safety, and environmental warnings
-

Professional Experience:

High Voltage Electrician
Grede Foundries, Inc., Middletown, NY
August 2005 – Present

- Maintained and updated electrical distribution system schematics.
- Repaired failures of substation breakers, transformers, and other equipment.
- Performed high voltage clearances on previously energized electrical equipment.
- Installed, modified, troubleshoot, repaired, tested, maintained and operated high voltage
- Conducted preventative maintenance program on transformers, switchgear and other electrical equipment.
- Maintained cleanliness of all electrical distribution equipment and vaults.

High Voltage Electrician
ASRC Energy Services, Middletown, NY
May 2000 – July 2005

- Maintained and installed lightning and static grounds.
 - Determined materials needed for repair work and prepares requisition.
 - Repaired, and overhauled engine driven generator
 - Calculated wire, fuse and transformed sizes for system repairs and upgrade.
 - Performed time compliance maintenance inspections in accordance with technical data.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering
Seminole State College, Seminole, OK

Build your Resume Now