
HIV Patient Navigator Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a job as HIV Patient Navigator and perform my duties with full dedication.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience in navigating HIV patients throughout their treatment
 - Immense knowledge of medical terminology
 - Exceptional knowledge of HIV disease and its effect on people
 - Ability to assist patients for various psychosocial requirements
 - Ability to maintain and update data on internal systems
 - Solid understanding of performing social research studies
-

Professional Experience:

HIV Patient Navigator
Hektoen Institute, LLC, San Jose, CA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Participated in various counselling sessions for preventing HIV among patients.
- Coordinated with patients and provided assistance to various referral services.
- Ensured and maintained a welcome environment and assisted in outreach programmes.
- Assisted various people suffering from HIV and provided consultation.
- Documented participant information and provided interventions for patients.
- Participated in various learning sessions and different types of intervention programs.

HIV Patient Navigator
AIDS Healthcare Foundation, San Jose, CA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Provided navigation and logical support for various childcare arrangements.
 - Coordinated with members and health team to provide critical feedback.
 - Participated in various conference meetings and communicated as per EMR notes.
 - Communicated with patients and scheduled appropriate appointments with clinic staff.
 - Developed and implemented an effective navigation service to HIV infected patients.
 - Designed strategies to facilitate enrolment processes and assisted in retention.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Social Science
Preston University, Cheyenne, WY

Build your Resume Now