
Hla Technologist Resume

Job Objective

Highly-motivated Hla Technologist seeking position with company in which to put my experience to good use.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Hands-on experience in performing HLA testing, antibody screening, biological assays and documentation
 - Immense knowledge of Mendelian genetics, immunology, and clinical histocompatibility testing
 - Extensive knowledge of development of new biological products and reagents
 - Familiarity with following inheritance patterns through family relationships
 - Ability to detect and eliminate quality related issues of test results and reagents
 - Ability to evaluate and interpret patient related information and care needs, efficiently
-

Professional Experience:

Hla Technologist
Baylor College of Medicine – Texas
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Obtained, processed and maintained biological specimens for HLA test procedures.
- Performed and documented clinical diagnostic tests and research studies.
- Recorded, validated, analyzed, and presented all test results, in an accurate manner.
- Calibrated, maintained, and performed quality control on all laboratory equipments.
- Procured and replenished stock level of lab supplies, reagents and testing kits.
- Interpreted and complied with GLP, GMP and laboratory SOPs, as applicable.

Hla Technologist
Emory Healthcare, Gallatin, TN
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Developed, reviewed, implemented and revised laboratory SOPs and test methods.
 - Prepared, maintained, and utilized all required laboratory reagents, efficiently.
 - Collected, processed, maintained, and tested all biological samples, efficiently.
 - Recorded, maintained and reported on test results and logs, using computerized databases.
 - Procured inventory of laboratory supplies and assisted in inventory control activities.
 - Developed and maintained strong professional relationships with physicians and medical staff.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Medical Technology
Northeastern State University, Tahlequah, OK

Build your Resume Now