
Human Rights Lawyer Resume

Job Objective

Human Rights Lawyer with immense experience in the legal field seeking a job in your firm.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience working in a human rights advocacy organization
 - Deep understanding and knowledge of international humanitarian law and policies
 - Familiarity with legal research and analysis procedures
 - Immense ability to cross-examine witness to gather evidences
 - Outstanding ability to draft legal documents
 - Remarkable ability to travel domestically and internationally to support cases
 - Superior written and verbal skills
-

Professional Experience:

Human Rights Lawyer
Sidley Austin LLP, Baton Rouge, LA
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Represented clients in international and regional human rights court and in war crimes tribunals.
 - Researched civil and criminal laws.
 - Reviewed factual project reports and case studies.
 - Drafted witness statements.
 - Participated in human rights conferences.
 - Maintained strong relationships with local, national and international human rights organizations.
 - Assisted in development of organizational policies.
 - Supervised interns in their assigned cases.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in International Human Rights Law
National American University, Albuquerque, NM
Bachelor's Degree in Law
Malone College, Canton, OH

Build your Resume Now