
Hydraulic Mechanic Resume

Job Objective

To secure a position as a Hydraulic Mechanic in a premier company and industry leader and to use my past experiences in the present work environment to better enhance the company.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Strong experience in installation and maintenance of hydraulic equipment
 - Thorough knowledge of the hydraulic circuits using fixed pumps and axial piston pumps
 - Ability to interpret and comprehend engineering drawings, applying codes, wiring diagrams and blueprints
 - Familiarity with hydraulic, electrical and overhauling engines and transmissions
 - Ability to handle heavy items and work in extreme weather conditions
 - Skilled to use the common hand tools and lift weights up to 60 pounds
-

Work Experience:

Hydraulic Mechanic, August 2005 – Present
Chesapeake Energy Corporation, Newton, MA

- Analyzed the drawing for hydraulic machinery and initiated its manufacturing.
- Studied electrical and hydraulic drawing along with general arrangement drawings.
- Assembled hydraulic components by hand tools.
- Performed welding work on components such as piping, carbon steel and stainless steel.
- Fabricated hose assemblies, piping and tubing with hand tools and bench mounted equipment's.
- Maintained the hydraulic machines with the help of bench mounted power tools.

Hydraulic Mechanic, May 2000 – July 2005
RDL Energy Services, Newton, MA

- Remodeled the components such as cylinders, valves, motors and pumps.
 - Installed various systems and components, along with trouble shooting the closed loop system.
 - Maintained and painted all manufactured assemblies.
 - Repaired and maintained the control systems for low and high voltage.
 - Assisted mechanics in testing the all the assemblies in the plant.
-

Education:

High School Diploma, Saint Gregory High School, Chicago, IL

Build your Resume Now