
Implementation Engineer Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a position of Implementation Engineer in a reputed organization where I can practice my skills and education.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Vast experience in software implementation and development
 - Exceptional knowledge of software data migration process and techniques
 - Proficient with VB.NET, C++, C#, ADO.NET, ASP.NET
 - Deep knowledge of networking and Windows and Linux operating systems
 - Ability to analyze and resolve all problems efficiently and effectively
 - Skilled to work on various software product and services
 - Good interpersonal skills and Effective Business writing skills
-

Professional Experience:

Implementation Engineer, August 2005 – Present
Syniverse Technologies, Appleton, WI

- Coordinated with technical team, vendors and customers and implemented customer project.
- Updated technical knowledge by reading technical publications and participated in various seminars.
- Developed user Acceptance test and ensured that it was implemented effectively.
- Provided technical support to customer and company for installation and test carried on network for both hardware and software process.
- Maintained files and table for various products and services for implementation process.
- Documented problem tracking system according to required specifications and resolved technical problems.
- Evaluated pre contract design and ensured compatibility with implementation process and tested it.

Implementation Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Atlas Development Corp, Appleton, WI

- Facilitated process and recommended effective ways for improving product quality for customer.
 - Coordinated with development, technical support and Quality Assurance teams and analyzed clients business and ascertained their requirements.
 - Assisted seniors and developed alpha and beta test plans for implementation and ensured that they were in accordance to customer's requirement.
 - Ensured that products of premium quality were delivered to client.
 - Trained customer and communicated with him at various levels of implementation process for product quality.
 - Maintained good working relationships with technical staff and provided technical support to client.
 - Designed project plan and documented process and drawings of project.
 - Trained new Implementation Specialists in implementation of project.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer science, Eureka College, Eureka, IL

Build your Resume Now