
INDUSTRIAL HYGIENIST RESUME

Summary:

A highly motivated individual with vast experience in industrial health practices and applications; with proven expertise in developing corrective methods, controls and procedures to improve work environments; superb ability in conducting research and survey to ensure standardization of hygiene procedures and processes within the industry to be conducive for the employees; has a creative approach to new campaigns Has a strong oraganizational skills; good communication skills both in oral and in writing

Professional Experience:

Industrial Hygienist January 2007 – present
Public Health Solutions, New York, NY

Responsibilities:

- Conducted health program to recognize, eliminate and control occupational health hazards and diseases
- Conducted evaluation of exposure to ionizing and non-ionizing radiation and to noise

Associate Industrial Hygienists May 2004 – December 2006
Shell Oil, Norco, LA

Responsibilities:

- Gathered and interpreted data from sampling chemical, physical and biological stresses
- Performed specialized surveys involving indoor air quality
- Coordinated medical surveillance programs required to monitor the health status of employees
- Conducted briefings on a variety of industrial hygiene and environment health programs
- Prepared written technical reports with recommendations

Industrial Hygienist Staff February 1999 – May 2004
Concurrent Technologies, Johnstown, PA

Responsibilities:

- Conducted health program to recognize, eliminate and control occupational health hazards and diseases
- Conducted evaluation of exposure to ionizing and non-ionizing radiation and to noise

Associate Industrial Hygienists May 2004 – December 2006
Shell Oil, Norco, LA

Education:

Master of Science in Industrial Hygiene
Stanford University, CA, 1999
Bachelor of Science in Industrial Hygiene
Stanford University, CA, 1999

Skills:

- Driven and determined
 - Good communication skills, both written and verbal
 - A creative approach to new campaigns
 - Strong organizational skills
 - Commercial awareness, for pricing and analyzing data
 - A high standard of computer literacy
-

Awards and Honors:

Certification, The American Board of Industrial Hygiene
Member, American Industrial Hygiene Association
