
Infection Control Practitioner Resume

Job Objective

To secure a position as Infection Control Practitioner with a reputable company where my skills can grow and help strengthen the company.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience in acute hospital infection control practice
 - Wide knowledge of the cause and control of infectious diseases
 - Familiarity with sterilization, disinfection and sanitation in a healthcare facility
 - Steep knowledge of JCAHO, OSHA, CAP, CDC, AIA and DSHS
 - Proficient with statistical information software
 - Ability to teach patients and families proper home health care activities
 - Ability to assess patient's condition
 - Ability to recognizes adverse signs and symptoms, and reacts swiftly
 - Superior computer, communication and Information Systems skills
-

Professional Experience:

Infection Control Practitioner
Valley Health System, Pollard, AR
August 2005 – Present

- Managed infection prevention and control program.
- Handled infection control surveillance and data evaluation activities.
- Coordinated with departments and outlined continuing education programs.
- Evaluated data analysis and interpreted data analysis findings.
- Aided Director of Infection Control and executed surveillance activities.
- Imparted formal and informal education programs.
- Carried out research and aided policy review.

Infection Control Practitioner
Inquest Health System, Pollard, AR
May 2000 – July 2005

- Carried out surveillance activities and isolation actions.
 - Analyzed epidemiological trends and risk of transmission.
 - Evaluated environmental health risks and acted as instructor for IC educational programs.
 - Monitored hand hygiene compliance and enforced infection control compliance efforts.
 - Monitored current standards from appropriate professional organizations.
 - Assessed Infection Control risks and Infection Control risks.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Nursing
Southwestern College, Santa Fe, NM

Build your Resume Now