
Infectious Disease Physician Resume

Job Objective

A talented Infectious Disease Physician with great skills and experience looking for a job in a well known organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Substantial experience of infectious disease management, treatment and prevention
 - In-depth knowledge of medical and healthcare principles and practices
 - Remarkable knowledge of symptom assessment, medical diagnosis and disease treatment
 - Familiarity with medical office's policy and procedure manuals
 - Ability to participate in quality assurance and continuing education activities
 - Ability to communicate with staff, patients and their families, in a friendly manner
-

Professional Experience:

Infectious Disease Physician
Palmetto General Hospital, Saint Louis, MO
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Examined, diagnosed, and treated all patients suffering from infections.
- Determined, conducted, and interpreted appropriate diagnostic and laboratory studies.
- Provided appropriate antibiotic therapy to patients and conducted necessary medical follow up.
- Informed and counseled patients and their families regarding medical condition and medication administration.
- Monitored infectious disease patients and maintained patient files and treatment records.
- Assisted with preparation of health policy changes and participated in process improvement activities.

Infectious Disease Physician
Tri-City Medical Center, Saint Louis, MO
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Provide medical care and followed up on patients with infectious conditions.
 - Diagnosed and treated a variety of simple and complicated infectious diseases,
 - Prepared medical charts of patients and made patient referrals to appropriate specialists.
 - Enforced and complied with billing, organizational, and regulatory standards.
 - Supported and assisted with Quality Assurance activities and their audits.
 - Established and maintained positive relationships with colleagues, medical staff, and regulatory bodies.
-

Education:

Doctor of Medicine
University of Toledo College of Medicine, Toledo, OH

Build your Resume Now