
Instrumentation Designer Resume

Job Objective

Looking for a position as Instrumentation Designer where my experience, knowledge and design skills are useful.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Huge experience in Instrument Design at Pulp and Paper Industry
 - Proficient with AutoCad, 3-D CAD measuring instruments drafting, hand tools and Microsoft office suite
 - Ability to design and develop mechanical and electrical equipment
 - Ability to prepare Logic Diagrams
 - Ability to utilize advanced electrical I&C engineering techniques
 - Ability to take initiative and multi-task
 - Ability to meet established deadlines
-

Professional Experience:

Instrumentation Designer

Aerotek, Rockville, MD

April 2006 – Present

- Processed Control Design for PLC and DCS Systems.
- Developed project scopes for construction estimates and design effort hours estimates.
- Specified and purchased instrumentation per plant standards.
- Designed and produced P&I Drawings of mill systems.
- Performed audits of combustion safety systems.
- Performed hands-on design and preparation of drawings using CAD software.

Instrumentation Designer

Hka Enterprise, Rockville, MD

June 2002 – March 2006

- Developed panel drawings for PLC and DCS systems.
 - Developed instrumentation installation detail and location drawings.
 - Developed fiber-optic backbone system drawings.
 - Updated and reported project schedules on regular basis.
 - Provided technical support to operating modules.
-

Education:

BS Degree in Electrical Engineering

Wisconsin Lutheran College, Wisconsin, WI

Build your Resume Now