
Interior Design Professor Resume

Job Objective

A passionate researcher and academician seeking to occupy the position of Interior Design Professor.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Exceptional experience in teaching interior design courses
 - Sound knowledge of design principles, Furniture Design and Art History
 - Exceptional knowledge of AutoCAD, Revit and Adobe programs
 - Familiarity with contemporary issues in design, art and architecture
 - Good understanding of teaching techniques
 - Ability to maintain good rapport with other faculty
 - Ability to teach design-process within a studio-centered curriculum
 - Ability to address student's educational needs
 - Ability to teach students from diverse backgrounds
-

Professional Experience:

Interior Design Professor
University of Alaska, New York, NY
August 2007 – Present

- Delivered lectures on interior design subjects as per established school curriculum.
 - Developed instructional plans to support course objectives.
 - Monitored student's progress and maintained accurate records.
 - Enforced school academic and attendance policies.
 - Drafted examination papers and graded student's assignments and class works.
 - Participated in orientations and graduations.
 - Advised students on career selection options.
 - Attended professional developmental seminars.
-

Education:

PhD in Interior Design
Southern New Hampshire University, Manchester, NH
Master's Degree in Interior Design
Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, PA

Build your Resume Now