
International Adventure Trip Leader Resume

Job Objective

Dedicated and hard-working applicant seeking an International Adventure Trip Leader position with reputable company that can benefit from my expertise.

Work Experience:

International Adventure Trip Leader, August 2005 – Present
Camp Takajo, Norcross, GA

- Lead groups of students on backpacking and adventure trips in foreign countries.
 - Trained tourists in basic outdoor skills and historical knowledge pertaining to the regions of travel.
 - Supervised planning meals, purchasing meals, and preparing meals, evening campfires, and backpacking preparations.
 - Mentored high school students and helped in their personal and intellectual development.
 - Overseen in-country travel, food, lodging and activities.
 - Managed home stays, service projects and budgets.
 - Coordinated with local staff, guides and organizations.
 - Facilitated the growth, development and safety of program participants.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Ability to perform complex trip planning and flight planning
 - Ability to lead small groups of teenagers through remote backcountry
 - Ability to read, write and speak a foreign language fluently
 - Excellent research, organizational and presentation skills
 - Strong management, leadership, initiative and interpersonal skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree In Recreation Administration, Ferris State University, Big Rapids, MI

Build your Resume Now