
Interventional Radiology Nurse Resume

Job Objective

Seeking an Interventional Radiology Nurse position that can make a difference to those who I am working for.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Extensive experience of working in a Radiology environment
 - Thorough knowledge of nursing theory and practice
 - Huge knowledge of prescribing, delegating, and coordinating nursing care
 - Excellent nursing and assessment skills
 - Effective communication and interpersonal skills
 - Outstanding ability to function in stressful situations
-

Work Experience:

Interventional Radiology Nurse, August 2005 – Present
Bingham Memorial Hospital, Mt Sterling, KY

- Provided comprehensive evidence based care to the patient population in Interventional Department.
- Coordinated with multidisciplinary team members to provide optimum care.
- Ensured adherence to the vision, values, mission, and critical goals of the organization.
- Provided comprehensive care based on the principles of growth and development across the life span of patients.
- Assisted in patient evaluation and monitoring, contrast injections, sedation and therapeutic injections, and facilitated Code 3 responses in the department.
- Managed Interventional Radiologists and Special Procedures Coordinator.

Interventional Radiology Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005
American Mobile Healthcare, Mt Sterling, KY

- Provided quality nursing care to all patients of the Radiology Department.
 - Ensured highest quality nursing care.
 - Developed and implemented care plan to meet patient care needs safely and efficiently.
 - Adhered to departmental and hospital standards, policies and procedures.
 - Maintained patient privacy, dignity, and safety at all times.
 - Responded to emergency care call in all areas of Radiology for procedures and interventions during all hours of the day and night.
-

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Allied Health Science, Marine Corps University, Quantico, VA

Build your Resume Now