IT SECURITY ANALYST RESUME

Job Objective:

Position as IT Security Analyst.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Outstanding knowledge of network technologies TCP/IP, routing and firewalls
- In-depth knowledge and understanding of existing IT technology
- Excellent customer service and decision-making skills
- Ability to support and work in a team environment
- Excellent communication and writing skills

Professional Experience:

IT Security Analyst
Modis, Inc., Lansing, MI
August 2005 – Present
Participated in the planning and design of enterprise security architecture.
Participated in the creation of enterprise security documents under the direction of the IT Security Manager.
Provided leadership and work guidance to Security Operations team personnel.
Maintained up-to-date detailed knowledge of the IT security industry including awareness of new or revised security solutions.
Improved security processes and the development of new attacks and threat vectors.
Recommended additional security solutions to existing security solutions to improve overall enterprise security.
IT Security Analyst
ProTrans International, Inc., Lansing, MI
May 2000 – July 2005
Maintained and developed operational configurations of all in-place security solutions.
Monitored all in-place security solutions for efficient and appropriate operations.
Participated in investigations into problematic activity.
Designed and executed vulnerability assessments, penetration tests and security audits.
Participated actively as a member of the Incident Response Team.
Provided recommendations for adaptation of new technologies and polices.
Developed and established strong, positive working relationships within IT and external to IT.

Education:

Bachelor Degree in IT Security
Arizona State University, Tempe, AZ

Build your Resume Now