IT SECURITY ENGINEER RESUME

Career Objective:

Seeking engineer position with growing company who needs an energetic and hard working employee to help meet goals.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Admirable experience of working as an IT Security Engineer for network and applications
- Wide experience in system security, network and application security
- In-depth knowledge of security Database, security Authentication and security protocols
- Technical knowledge of application firewalls, proxy and reverse proxy solutions
- Deep knowledge of LAN/WAN, VoIP, RIP, VLANs OSPF, EIGRP, and Cisco ACLs
- Familiarity with data handling, data leakage methodologies and prevention
- Strong knowledge of software, hardware, networking devices, and technical security controls

Work Experience:

IT Security Engineer, August 2005 – Present
ShopBop, Cowden, IL

- Maintained a front line security system for all information such as firewall and network.
- Monitored all threats to system and resolved m accurately.
- Handled data and maintained all confidential data.
- Performed regular vulnerability assessments on application and infrastructure.
- Evaluated networks and recommended necessary patches and any changes if required in operating systems.
- Regulated audits on systems and ensured that all security standards and processes were being followed.
- Prepared material for training users and subordinates on various security technologies.
- Designed security system for company and enforced it.

IT Security Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
ASRC Federal Holding Company, Cowden, IL

- Managed security devices of infrastructure such as access controls and firewalls.
- Coordinated with Network Operations and ensured that access control lists were maintained.
- Assisted end users and managers and evaluated present security policies.
- Developed and implemented technical security standards.
- Worked with IT staff and ensured that security policies and procedures and enforced properly.
- Conducted risk assessments tests on infrastructure and reviewed technology changes.
- Maintained a network diagram with help of Network Manager.

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer science, Principia College, Elsah, IL

Build your Resume Now