
Laboratory Director Resume

Job Objective

Position as Laboratory Director where my experience will add value to operations within the organization.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Strong experience in the Pharmaceutical Clinical Research industry
 - Thorough and demonstrated knowledge of methods of analysis used in Clinical Laboratories
 - In-depth knowledgeable of fiscal and general healthcare issues, trends, quality management
 - Familiarity with laboratory equipment and automation and laboratory practice & standards
 - Sound knowledge of the application of technology to the drug discovery process
 - Good understanding of scientific methodology and clinical study design
 - Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
 - Strong leadership, management and motivational skills
 - Remarkable ability to prepare narrative and statistical reports and presentations
-

Work Experience:

Laboratory Director, August 2005 – Present

South Texas Regional Medical Center, San Antonio, TX

- Directed Clinical Laboratory operations and responsible for the analytical results produced by the central laboratory facility.
- Managed ongoing education of the Central Laboratory staff.
- Advised Management Team about Clinical Laboratory activities.
- Implemented global analytical policies and procedures.
- Provided advice and consultation in protocol and quotation development.
- Advised Sales group on testing methodologies and analytical platforms.

Laboratory Director, May 2000 – July 2005

The Jackson Laboratory, San Antonio, TX

- Ensured safety regulations in the Laboratory, and followed all local security procedures.
 - Provided global support and input in the appropriate selection of appropriate analytical methodologies and analytical platforms.
 - Headed global development of new laboratory services.
 - Maintained industry knowledge of market needs and advancements in analytical technologies.
 - Ensured local and global quality systems.
 - Established and maintained the (global) standard operating procedures (SOPs).
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration, SUNY – Purchase College, Purchase, NY

Build your Resume Now