
Latent Print Examiner Resume

Job Objective

Experienced Latent Print Examiner seeking position with well-established business where my skills, training and experience can be of value.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience processing evidence with chemicals in a laboratory setting
 - Profound knowledge of latent fingerprint and evidence processing records
 - Extensive knowledge of photographing techniques and equipment
 - Familiarity with standard fingerprint classification and identification practices, techniques, and equipment
 - Ability to operate automated microfilm retrieval system
 - Ability to operate laboratory photographic equipment
 - Ability to process and photograph latent fingerprints
 - Ability to perform processing of materials for latent prints
-

Professional Experience:

Latent Print Examiner, August 2005 – Present
Harding Security, Rapelje, MT

- Processed various types of evidence for latent prints.
- Improved visible latent prints.
- Compared latent prints to known impressions.
- Developed detailed reports on processes performed and results.
- Trained personnel in the area of latent prints.
- Maintained and documented the chain of custody of evidence.
- Gathered and preserved possible DNA evidence.

Latent Print Examiner, May 2000 – July 2005
Ideal Innovations, Inc., Rapelje, MT

- Examined, evaluated and made comparisons of latent fingerprints with known suspect's inked fingerprints.
 - Processed evidence for latent fingerprints.
 - Received, examined and prepared evidence in the Crime Scene Investigation Laboratory.
 - Packaged and sent evidence to other formal laboratories for examination.
 - Maintained evidence-processing records.
 - Clicked photographs of evidence concerning latent fingerprints and latent print processing.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Natural Science, Ohio Dominican University, Columbus, OH

Build your Resume Now