

---

Law Enforcement Teacher Resume

---

Job Objective

To maximize my skills and training as a Law Enforcement Teacher in well organized school to help the campus achieve its goals.

---

Work Experience:

Law Enforcement Teacher, August 2005 – Present
Fontana College, Rock Island, IL

- Prepared relevant course materials adhering to established school policies.
- Facilitated conducive atmosphere for classroom discussions and debates.
- Maintained the attendance records and grades of all the assigned class and students.
- Selected and obtained materials and supplies as required for the course syllabus.
- Collaborated and partnered with other teachers to address research issues.
- Prepared proposal to acquire external research grants/funds.

Law Enforcement Teacher, May 2000 – July 2005
Lone Star College System, Rock Island, IL

- Provided a lead role for other law enforcement instructors/teachers.
  - Assisted in all the aspects of training in compliance with established structure.
  - Managed to teach 30 hours a week with 10 hours for preparation.
  - Participated in the recruitment process and campus placement activities.
  - Provided professional consultancy services to the institution when needed.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Proficient with criminology and the functioning of law enforcement agencies
  - Thorough knowledge of police methods and procedures, crime prevention, traffic control, investigation, and identification techniques
  - Operational knowledge of criminal law, arrest, and custody of persons
  - Immense ability to recognize the educational needs of the students
  - Amazing ability to handle multiple tasks – teaching and administration
  - Excellent communication and intrapersonal skills
  - Strong time management and class management skills
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Legal Studies, Chestnut Hill College, Philadelphia, PA

---

Build your Resume Now