
LEARNING SUPPORT TEACHER RESUME

Career Objective:

Pursuing a Learning Support Teacher position where my skills and special training can positively advance the school in meeting its goals.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Skilled to teach children with mild learning difficulties
 - Solid knowledge of working with students of various ages
 - Immense ability to take charge of student behavior
 - Amazing ability to identify potentially unsafe situations
 - Excellent behavioral management skills
 - Strong verbal and written communication skills
-

Work Experience:

Learning Support Teacher, August 2005 – Present
Edison High School, Walnut Creek, CA

- Handled students with mild to moderate learning disabilities.
- Prepared and presented the teaching structure depending on student needs.
- Monitored case management of students with learning disabilities.
- Facilitated teacher and parent meetings.
- Developed Individualized Learning Plans and overall student advocacy.
- Extended specific remediation of literacy and mathematics deficits.

Learning Support Teacher, May 2000 – July 2005
Fox Technical High School, Walnut Creek, CA

- Assessed student needs and progress.
 - Supported teachers with differentiation strategies in the classroom.
 - Promoted the inclusive values and mission of the school.
 - Monitored the facility through a multi-disciplinary team based approach.
 - Promoted the use of adaptive technologies.
 - Managed to keep up-to-date on curriculum developments and trends.
-

Education:

High School Diploma, Grayslake Community High School, Grayslake, IL

Build your Resume Now