
Locum Physician Resume

Job Objective

Seeking the position of Locum Physician where I can display my dedication and skills.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Highly experienced in providing ship and shore medical and dental care services
 - Profound knowledge of treatment regimens, medications and follow up
 - Operational knowledge of using computer, MS Office and clinical database systems
 - Familiarity with various medical practices and primary care services
 - Ability to interact with patients, colleagues and student interns, in a positive manner
 - Ability to manage allocated budget and maintain medical records
-

Professional Experience:

Locum Physician
Linde Healthcare, Schaefferstown, PA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Managed and directed operations of ship and shore medical department.
- Treated and provided medical care to all coastguards and shipboard personnel.
- Supervised, coordinated and monitored ship and shore Tuberculosis Monitoring Program.
- Managed Immunization Program and provided timely vaccinations to personnel.
- Handled and maintained medical department's budget for medicines and medical supplies.
- Prepared and maintained accurate medical and dental records for all personnel.

Locum Physician
IN Compass Health, Schaefferstown, PA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Supervised and managed all operations of the Medical Service on a daily basis.
 - Maintained stock level of all medical supplies and ensured proper operation of all medical equipments.
 - Scheduled and coordinated all shore side medical and dental appointments for personnel.
 - Developed and executed programs related to HIV/AIDS prevention and health education.
 - Directed and conducted training of personnel on CPR, First Aid, and Mass Casualty.
 - Planned and conducted inspections related to food service sanitation & habitability.
-

Education:

Doctor of Medicine
National Institutes of Health Intramural MD-PhD Partnership, Bethesda, MD

Build your Resume Now