
Loss Prevention Agent Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Loss Prevention Agent position in a highly reputed organization.

Work Experience:

Loss Prevention Agent, May 2004 – Present
Beall's, Inc., Palmdale, CA

- Recovered assets and made safe apprehensions.
- Assisted with internal investigations under direction of Loss Prevention Manager.
- Maintained awareness by promoting available resources.
- Trained associates on proper emergency procedures.
- Served as support to store management to ensure safe work environment.
- Ensured to comply with company apprehension guidelines.

Loss Prevention Agent, March 2002– April 2004
Gap Inc., Palmdale, CA

- Committed to the highest degree of professionalism and customer service.
 - Identified and reported indications of internal theft and determined sources.
 - Maintained effective relationship with local related law enforcement agencies.
 - Delegated company in court apprehends proceedings.
 - Audited security measures and ensured its implementation.
 - Provided training for designated stores and contributed to overall shortage reduction.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience in retail loss prevention
 - Good verbal and written communication skills
 - Sound ability to communicate with all levels of staff and management
 - Proficient in using surveillance technologies
 - Familiarity with loss prevention concepts, safety standards and codes
 - Excellent underwriting and product management skills
 - Strong investigative, analytical and problem-solving skills
 - Amazing ability to work during nights and weekends
-

Education:

Associate Degree in Criminal Justice, Passaic County Community College, Paterson, NJ

Build your Resume Now