
Loss Prevention Investigator Resume

Job Objective

Looking for an opportunity to work for a well-established firm by filling the position of Loss Prevention Investigator.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable loss prevention experience in retail industry
 - Familiarity with internal and external shortage controls and security systems technology
 - Wide knowledge of criminal laws regarding theft, fraud, trespass, assault, and use-of-force
 - Skilled in operating CCTV surveillance systems, EAS, Access and inventory systems
 - Proficient with computer-based reporting and LP related systems – RE, XBR, Orbit, Lexis Nexis, LerpNet, Netclaim
 - Strong acute observation and analytical skills
 - Excellent computer and analytical skills
-

Work Experience:

Loss Prevention Investigator, August 2005 – Present
Destination Maternity Corporation, Lansing, MI

- Prevented the losses from business abuse, theft and fraud.
- Reported and documented the cases and incidents.
- Appeared as a witness in legal proceedings when necessary.
- Provided the ideas and measures to prevent losses and increase efficiencies.
- Performed Risk Management inspections and communicated potential safety hazards and vulnerability in active Security measures.
- Reported and investigated the store accidents, injuries and property damage.

Loss Prevention Investigator, May 2000 – July 2005
Dollar General, Lansing, MI

- Detected, investigated and successfully conducted resolution of internal and external dishonesty.
 - Assured proper operation and repair of alarm and CCTV equipment.
 - Monitored and implemented the Safety, OSHA and Environmental programs in their unit.
 - Conducted safety inspections on a scheduled basis.
 - Supported the safety committee, planned meetings and followed-up on action to be taken.
 - Recognized and ensured the communication upward of issues that must be addressed at a higher level.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Business Management, Jackson State University, Jackson, MS

Build your Resume Now