
Lymphedema Therapist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking employment as a Lymphedema Therapist in a well established organization where I can put my specialized skills to the best use.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Huge experience in providing lymphedema therapeutic services
 - Outstanding knowledge of working in acute care hospital setting
 - Sound knowledge of patient assessment
 - Skilled in treating complex lymphedema patients
 - Familiarity with rehabilitation procedures
 - Immense ability to develop therapeutic interventions
 - Remarkable ability to provide therapies independently and in groups
 - Amazing ability to make complex clinical decisions
 - Ability to carry, lift or move more than 50 lbs.
-

Professional Experience:

Lymphedema Therapist
Johns Hopkins Hospital, Camden, NJ
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Evaluated patients to determine their health problems.
- Developed lymphedema therapy programs to meet patient's needs.
- Informed patients and families about therapy procedures.
- Monitored patient's responses to therapy sessions.
- Maintained patient care documentations.
- Assisted in registration and discharge activities.
- Followed professional and productivity standards at all times.
- Attended trainings for professional development.

Lymphedema Therapist
Madison County Hospital, Camden, NJ
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Coordinated with other medical professionals to achieve therapy goals.
 - Modified lymphedema therapy programs based on patient's assessment.
 - Evaluated program effectiveness and recommended improvements.
 - Provided patients treatments to prevent disability.
 - Recorded patient's daily progresses.
 - Acted as main contact for referring providers.
 - Educated patients about rehabilitation techniques.
-

Education:

Master's Degree in Physical Therapy
Gustavus Adolphus College, Saint Peter, MN
Bachelor's Degree in Physical Therapy
Grace University, Omaha, NE

Build your Resume Now