
M AND A ANALYST RESUME

Job Objective:

Seeking the position of M&A Analyst in an esteemed organization.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Profound knowledge of M&A
 - Possess teamwork and interpersonal skills
 - Ability to work within and across all state departments and business units
 - Sound knowledge of project management
 - Strong analytical skills and ability to follow-up and pay close attention to detail
-

Professional Experience:

M&A Analyst
Robert Half Finance & Accounting, Chicago, IL
August 2005 – Present

- Worked directly with the firm's principal to support and lead various aspects of client engagements, business development, marketing activities and day-to-day operations.
- Participated effectively in a variety of transactions, from initial client pitches to transaction closings.
- Documented offering memoranda and pitch books, client support, financial analysis and modeling and marketing idea creation and execution.
- Participated actively in conference calls and meetings.
- Mentored and developed junior staff and interns.

M&A Analyst
Investment Bank, Chicago, IL
May 2000 – July 2005

- Researched industry and company analysis.
 - Prepared and created research reports and presentation materials.
 - Performed strategic screening for potential acquisition and partnering candidates.
 - Participated actively in M&A auction processes including analysis and review of offering materials, valuation modeling, coordination of due diligence, contract negotiation and integration preparation.
 - Liaised efficiently with Business Units to provide business development support of their growth and reinvention objectives.
 - Participated extensively in corporate strategy development and reviewed priorities.
-

Education:

Bachelor Degree in Economics
University of California, Los Angeles, CA

Build your Resume Now