
MAINFRAME PROFESSIONAL RESUME

Objective:

To take a challenging role as Mainframe Professional in a highly technical company where I could utilize my skills in mainframes and other related tools and use these skills in providing quality service to the company.

Education:

Master in Computer Applications, 2002
Yale University

BS MIS, 1999
Yale University

Skills:

- Languages: IBM Mainframe – COBOL, JCL
- Database: IDMS, DB2
- Integrated Solutions: Oracle E-Business Suite
- Working knowledge on COBOL and IBM Assembler (ALC/BAL/HLASM)
- Strong familiarity with computer languages and database software
- DEC / VAX, Burroughs / Unisys and Unix based systems

Professional Experience:

- Mainframe Professional, 2008-present
- Halex Corp., Georgetown, MA

Responsibilities:

- Tracked the clients' monthly statements, remittances and settlements using IDMS.
- Supported real-time transactions from card readers through POS and batch numbers.
- Authorized configuration of mainframes to be used for consumer's accounts.
- Mainframe Analyst, 2005-2008
- Halex Corp., Georgetown, MA

Responsibilities:

- Utilized ACCESS software as a requisite protocol for communication transmission.
- Monitored the POS systems to be able to keep track and document any discrepancies in the accounts.
- Converted designs into practical applications for the router system.
- Handled multi-level IBM mainframe applications.
- Mainframe Developer, 2002-2005
- Halex Corp., Georgetown, MA

Responsibilities:

- Tracked the clients' monthly statements, remittances and settlements using IDMS.
- Supported real-time transactions from card readers through POS and batch numbers.
- Authorized configuration of mainframes to be used for consumer's accounts.
- Mainframe Analyst, 2005-2008
- Halex Corp., Georgetown, MA

Certifications and Affiliations:

CompTIA Certified Technical Trainer (CTT+)
Certified Novell Engineer (CNE)

Build your Resume Now