
Marine Biologist Resume

Job Objective

Seeking an exciting and challenging position as a Marine Biologist in a company where my skills and knowledge can be used to the fullest.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Highly experienced in planning and conducting marine field studies and habitat compensation programs
 - Sound knowledge of marine biology and ecosystem components
 - Immense knowledge of government-approved environmental legislation and industry-wide EIA process
 - Familiarity with budget management and proposal writing practices
 - Ability to produce regulatory permit applications and authorizations, properly
 - Ability to record and maintain accurate data in laboratory notebooks
-

Professional Experience:

Marine Biologist
RPS Group, Tukwila, WA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Developed, implemented, and reviewed all laboratory protocols related to experimental procedures.
 - Lead and supervised various marine field sampling and biological surveys.
 - Collected, analyzed, and reported all biological information and survey findings.
 - Interacted with and advised clients on environmental policy, EIA, mitigation strategies.
 - Produced permit approval applications and authored supporting documents.
 - Trained and guided all subordinate team members and support staff, as needed.
-

Marine Biologist
NEIWPCC, Tukwila, WA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Observed and checked video monitoring systems aboard commercial fishing vessels.
 - Maintained proper water quality and supported propagation of various marine species.
 - Kept and maintained computerized records of daily sightings of target marine animals.
 - Assessed marine species and prepared detailed reports of outcomes.
 - Gathered and classified various marine animals, for taxonomic studies.
 - Interpreted and complied with governmental fishing regulations and standards.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Marine Biology
Briar Cliff University, Sioux City, IA

Build your Resume Now