
Mechanical Commissioning Engineer Resume

Job Objective

Mechanical Commissioning Engineer seeking position in which to make a positive impact in company by using my special skills and training.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Vast experience in mechanical commissioning and mechanical building projects
 - Deep knowledge of mechanical building codes and construction
 - Remarkable ability to develop mechanical commissioning test procedures
 - Expertise in building projects for green buildings
 - Sound knowledge of working for large building projects in an HVAC environment
 - Immense ability to interpret HVAC schematic diagrams and specifications
 - Good skills to understand DDC control system and mechanical designs
 - Familiarity with HVAC system and building design
 - Proficient in using MEP and LEED rating systems and credits
-

Professional Experience:

Mechanical Commissioning Engineer, August 2005 – Present
McDonough Bolyard Peck, Inc., Greenville, SC

- Coordinated with management team and assisted in building commissioning activities.
- Provide technical support to retro commissioning projects that were being utility funded.
- Evaluated designs of HVAC systems, fire safety and building automation systems.
- Inspected process for Quality Assurance and Control.
- Documented reports of progress made in project.
- Designed test procedures for mechanical systems and ensured their smooth functioning.
- Resolved and identified all problems that occurred in process.
- Ensured that procedure were in accordance with drawings.

Mechanical Commissioning Engineer, May 2000 – July 2005
Eaton Corporation, Greenville, SC

- Managed training and provided consultative support to process and made necessary follow ups.
 - Coordinated with HVAC contractors and engineering firms that prepare commissioning.
 - Developed a Quality Assurance plan for those members that completed training process in Partner Firms.
 - Ensured that equipments were properly installed and maintained heating and cooling equipments.
 - Developed a cost effective program with help of Marketing Manager, Program Director and Event Coordinator.
 - Trained a team of support staff and engineer in commissioning process.
 - Provided technical support to projects and analyzed m.
 - Conducted ad hoc training sessions for program participants and staff.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Mechanical Engineering, Fresno City College, Fresno, CA

Build your Resume Now