

---

Medical Assistant Instructor Resume

---

Job Objective

Seeking a position as a Medical Assistant Instructor within your valued institution where I can utilize my education, experience and teaching abilities.

---

Work Experience:

---

- Medical Assistant Instructor, 2006 to Present
  - Athens Technical College, Athens, GA
  - Supervised school progress, conducted student orientations and suggested students during the program.
  - Prepared student progress reports and graded reports.
  - Instructed current technology and equipment utilized throughout the medical field.
  - Instructed blood drawing procedures, injections, venipuncture, Urinalysis and wound care.
  - Taught techniques with vacutainer tubes, syringes, butterfly needles and tourniquets.
-

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Excellent knowledge and experience in medical terminology, Physiology, EKG, Injections, wound care and GYN
  - Immense ability to interact effectively and professionally with students, parents & faculty
  - Thorough experience in Vital signs, Venipuncture, Urinalysis and other clinical skills
  - Strong evaluation, communication, computation, problem solving and decision-making skills
  - Profound ability to analyze and interpret common technical journals and pharmaceutical concepts
-

Education:

---

B.S in Nursing, 2004, Carnegie Mellon University
Medical Assistant Certification, 2006, Johns Hopkins University

Build your Resume Now