
Medical Imaging Sonographer Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Medical Imaging Sonographer position in an organization where I can use my skills to benefit and enrich my knowledge.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Substantial experience of providing diagnostic medical imaging and sonography services
 - Extensive knowledge of various ultrasound procedures and related technologies
 - Operational knowledge of computers, ultrasound machines, and PACS system
 - Familiarity with CPR, data collection, and Quality Control practices
 - Ability to work with staff, nursing team, and physicians, in a helpful manner
 - Ability to interact with patients of all age groups and backgrounds, in a friendly manner
-

Professional Experience:

Medical Imaging Sonographer
Providence Hospital, Seattle, WA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Scheduled, tracked, and managed all patient exams, using computer system.
 - Coordinated and executed various types of diagnostic imaging and ultrasound procedures.
 - Produced, reviewed, and delivered high quality and accurate medical images, efficiently.
 - Completed and submitted Ultrasound worksheet and notes, on a timely basis.
 - Operated and serviced all assigned ultrasound machines and related equipments, carefully.
 - Uploaded and maintained all diagnostic images and sonographic information in PACS.
 - Collected data for KPIs and assisted in Process Improvement activities, as required.
 - Attended and participated in departmental staff and team meetings, as needed.
 - Interpreted and adhered to departmental work protocols and policies, as applicable.
 - Developed and maintained positive working relationships with all radiologists, physicians, and other employees of the organization.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Sonography Technology
Fresno City College, Fresno, CA

Build your Resume Now