

---

MEDICAL RESEARCH ASSISTANT RESUME

---

Objective:

To obtain a Medical Research Assistant position which will challenge me and help the organization continue to be successful.

Summary of Skills:

- Ability to undertake research and analysis
- Profound knowledge of inventory methods and procedures
- Effective organizational and communication skills
- Strong verbal and written communication skills

Work Experience:

Medical Research Assistant
Vanderbilt University, McLean, VA
August 2005 to till date

- Performed collection and organization of clinical data and biomarker data.
- Assured consistency with protocols relative to animal number justification.
- Developed and assisted with the maintenance of database.
- Ensured accurate animal census monitoring by communicating with staff and Project Manager.
- Assisted in the preparation of technical reports and clinical research protocols.

Medical Research Assistant
The ICPS Group, McLean, VA
May 2000 to July 2005

- Administered specimen processing and shipping.
- Analyzed data and calculated values
- Performed basic analysis of data quality and consistency.
- Ensured detailed observations about clinical data and laboratory sample processing.
- Maintained clear and accurate recruitment records, specimen collection records, inventories and logbooks.
- Maintained databases and provided basic data analysis and interpretation.

Education:

Associate Degree in Clinical Research
St. Francis University, Loretto, PA

Build your Resume Now