
MILITARY ENGINEER RESUME

Objective:

Seeking the position of Military Engineer and join the government organization where my extensive skills in military engineering will be greatly utilized to meet the company's desired objectives. My expertise in management and operational support will complement these skills in protecting the people's welfare.

Education:

MA Civil Engineering, 2000
Yale University

B.A Coursework with Concentration in Government Studies, 1996
Yale University

Skills:

- Management skills
- Skilled in training relative to logistics and operational support
- Operations Management
- Excellent leadership skills
- Windows, Vista, Microsoft Office
- Internet protocols

Professional Experience:

- Military Engineer III, 2007-present
- AFP , North Cleveland, TX

Responsibilities:

- Designed logistical and combative structures.
- Conducted routine check-up and maintenance on armories.
- Obtained licensing and educational requirements needed for combat operations.
- Military Engineer II, 2005-2007
- Southern Command, North Cleveland, TX

Responsibilities:

- Dismantled weapons, enemy minefields and bridges as part of simulation activities.
- Maintained weaponry, infrastructures and war devices.
- Analyzed possible threats by conducting regular surveillance.
- Ensured that all combative structures are in good condition.
- Battalion Officer 2000-2005
- Haber Inc., North Cleveland, TX

Responsibilities:

- Designed logistical and combative structures.
- Conducted routine check-up and maintenance on armories.
- Obtained licensing and educational requirements needed for combat operations.
- Military Engineer II, 2005-2007
- Southern Command, North Cleveland, TX

Certifications and Affiliations:

Army Advanced Initial Training
Lexus/Nexus Certification

Build your Resume Now

