

---

Morgue Attendant Resume

---

Job Objective

To obtain a Morgue Attendant position in a company that provides an open environment with many opportunities for continuous growth.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Profound ability to read & understand the SOPS & departmental safety manuals
  - Strong ability to perform under difficult circumstances such as dealing with a disfigured & decomposed body
  - Excellent ability to observe and record facts clearly, accurately, and legibly
  - Ability to tolerate and work with unpleasant sights, sounds, and odors in a stressful environment
  - Excellent written and verbal communication skills
  - Ability to follow instructions and pay attention to detail
  - Ability to perform office and clerical functions (typing, photocopying and data entry)
  - Ability to work independently and at times as part of a team
-

Work Experience:

---

Morgue Attendant, August 2005 to till date
Glens Falls Hospital, Albertville, AL

- Administered surgical instruments and laboratory supplies for postmortem examination.
  - Ensured to wash table, storage trays, and instruments; sharpened knives, and replaced soiled linens.
  - Prompted to places body on autopsy table and in refrigerated compartment, using portable hoist and stretcher.
  - Managed to mix preserving fluids according to formulas, preserves specimens, and stains slides.
  - Managed to close postmortem incisions, using surgical needle and thread, and fills cranium with plaster.
  - Identified problems regarding the areas of responsibility & solicited feedback from the supervisor and attending pathologist.
  - Administered a variety of technical & clerical functions associated with post mortem examinations & other dissections as directed by the attending pathologist.
-

Education:

---

Associate Degree in Nursing, University of Illinois System, Illinois, IL

Build your Resume Now