
Music Professor Resume

Job Objective

To work as Music Professor and contribute towards the success of students.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in teaching music courses
 - Sound knowledge of jazz history, performance and improvisation
 - Deep knowledge of instructional techniques
 - Proficient with Kodaly techniques
 - Familiarity with music history, theory, appreciation and choral conducting
 - Ability to teach students from diverse backgrounds
 - Ability to provide career guidance to students
 - Ability to manage workload and adhere to class schedules
-

Professional Experience:

Music Professor

East Central University, Oakland, CA

August 2007 – Present

- Provided lectures on fundamentals of music.
- Assisted in development of course curriculum.
- Reviewed and revised course programs.
- Evaluated student's assignments and tests.
- Worked with other faculty to prepare course contents.
- Developed instructional materials for students.
- Recommended improvements to course syllabus.

Music Professor

Baltimore City Community College, Oakland, CA

May 2004 – July 2007

- Conducted and graded student examinations.
 - Maintained student's progress and attendance reports.
 - Conducted master classes and workshops for students.
 - Involved students in music concerts and competitions.
 - Assisted in student audition and admission procedures.
 - Provided support to students with special learning needs.
 - Participated in campus events and faculty meetings.
-

Education:

PhD in Music Education

Seton Hall University, South Orange, NJ

Imperial Valley College, Imperial, CA

Build your Resume Now