NETWORK DEVELOPER RESUME

Francisco Murray
4920 Edsel Road
Los Angeles, CA 90017
(222) 602-8562
Email : [email]

Career Goal:

Seeking the position of a Network Developer to utilize my skills in C, Java, TCP/ IP, HTTP, FTP, Perl, TCL and IP networking to help in achievement of organizational objectives.

Technical Skills:

High technical knowledge of programming languages like:

- VB, VC
- C++, .Net
- VBA

Immensely talented in database administration:

- MySQL, Oracle
- MS Access
- PostgreSQL

Thorough with network administration:

- TCP/ IP, DNS
- DHCP, Wifi
- Email server

Technically sound with graphic designing software:

- CorelDraw
- MS Publisher
- Photoshop and Premiere

Solid understanding of web development using:

- SQL, JavaScript
- ASP, PHP
- Perl

Virtuoso in utilizing web containers:

- WebLogic, Tomcat
- JSON, SOAP
- Webservices

Skilled at Java technologies:

- J2EE, spring
- Spring MVC
- Struts

Strong capabilities to:

- Implement software development methodologies
- Perform multi-thread application development

Relevant Experience:

Network Developer
INDUS Corporation
January 2012 – Present
Los Angeles, CA

- Maintained system reports and documentation relating to comparative study of networks for all customers.
- Conducted review and analysis of credentials to study prospective providers.
- Coordinated with corporate personnel for adding of new contacts to existing database records.
- Resolved network problems and issues by thorough system research and proper resolution.
- Assisted in development and support functions of system application for automation of business processes.
- Implemented processes and programs for import and maintenance of files from external vendors.

- Prepared various reports form data warehouse activities for analysis and reference.
- Provided technical expertise for database reporting functions and performance tuning of SQL database applications.

Network Developer
Park Computer Systems, Inc.
November 2010 – January 2012
Newark, CA

- Assisted in performance tuning and code optimization in Linux systems, file systems and hard disks.
- Conducted research and analysis to suggest innovative firewall and network filtering technologies.
- Provided technical guidance for review and updating of existing and new software designs.
- Performed development and creation of new service stations for finding dealers.
- Coordinated with technical teams for research, monitoring and negotiation of potential stations.
- Prepared reference databases by collection of information and analysis of viability of new stations.
- Upgraded network hardware and software components for applications such as desktop, OS and ERP systems.
- Implemented processes for automation of system maintenance and related operations through scripting languages such as Bash.

Education Summary:

Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science
Bowling Green State University
August 2006 – May 2010
Bowling Green, OH

Professional Certification:

Cisco Certified Design Associate (CCDA)July 2010

Build your Resume Now