
Nurse Navigator Resume

Job Objective

Career-minded Nurse Navigator in search of position with company where my skills and abilities can be used to their fullest potential.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Substantial experience in providing patient care in acute care clinical environment
 - Thorough knowledge of health promotion and modification activities
 - Outstanding knowledge of employee benefit programs and designs
 - Ability to design appropriate strategies to achieve objectives
 - Ability to utilize and implement virtual information system for patients
 - Solid understanding of local health care activities
-

Professional Experience:

Nurse Navigator
Evolution Health, Oakland, CA
August 2012 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Analysed operational activities and ensured appropriate resolution of issues.
- Coordinated with team members and prioritized work as per requirement.
- Supervised everyday activities and provided technical support to business and technical team members.
- Provided nursing care to patients right from the onset of diseases to surviving it.
- Ensured compliance to nursing processes and oncology nursing standards for activities.
- Provided education to patient and family members for diseases and its after care.

Nurse Navigator
Presence Health, Oakland, CA
May 2009 – July 2012

Responsibilities:

- Scheduled appointments for patients and maintained knowledge of breast health programs.
 - Participated in various oncology programs for community and hospital events.
 - Attended oncology department staff meetings on regular basis.
 - Conducted regular and follow up interviews with breast health and oncology patients.
 - Documented and reviewed patient response on various physiology and psychosocial activities.
 - Provided support to patients for various insurance and financial issues.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Nursing
Olympic College, Bremerton, WA

Build your Resume Now