
Nursing Attendant Resume

Job Objective

To obtain a Nursing Attendant position in a highly reputed organization.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Profound knowledge of collecting specimens for clinical examination
 - Excellent ability to learn and follow sterile techniques
 - Thorough knowledge of assessing patient's physical, psychological, sociological and spiritual needs
 - Excellent time-management; organizational; communication and interpersonal skills
 - Exceptional skills of maintaining safe and hygienic environment for both patients and staff
 - Ability to function in stressful situations, under time pressure, in crisis environment
 - Ability to follow directions quickly and to anticipate needs of nursing staff and physicians
 - Strong physical ability to safely transport, lift and haul heavy patients without jeopardizing patient's health
-

Work Experience:

Nursing Attendant, August 2005 to till date

New York Presbyterian Hospital, Commack, NY

- Monitored assigned patients; responded to patients requests; and made mechanical adjustments of bed.
 - Ensured to observe-record and report normal and abnormal responses to basic therapeutic treatments.
 - Assisted physician and licensed nurses in clinic examinations and treatments.
 - Facilitated to transports patients on beds, stretchers and wheelchairs from one unit to operating rooms and examining rooms.
 - Contributed to patients comfort and well being by changing linen, rearranging bedding, cleaning room, serving and removing meal trays.
 - Replenished medical supplies for the units and performed some clerical work related to patient care.
 - Recognized situations of priority and emergency and reported to the nursing staff.
 - Assisted in evaluating and communicating outcomes as a result of nursing interventions.
-

Education:

Associate Degree in Nursing, Nicholls State University, Louisiana, LA

Build your Resume Now