

---

Occupational Health And Safety Specialist Resume

---

Job Objective

Experienced Occupational Health And Safety Specialist looking for work within the qualifying field in order to fill a need within the company.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Hands on experience in providing health and safety practices in a manufacturing environment
  - Outstanding knowledge of government safety, NFPA and OSHA regulations
  - Huge knowledge of manufacturing plant operations
  - Immense ability to multitask and prioritize work
  - Exceptional ability to work on various kinds of extreme weather
  - Skilled in basic computer applications
  - Excellent communication skills in both oral and written form
  - Proficient in working with all protective equipment
-

Professional Experience:

---

Occupational Health And Safety Specialist
PDS Technical Services, Rolla, MO
May 2006 – Present

- Developed various safety procedures and guidelines for conducting various jobs and operating equipments.
- Analyzed any unsafe conditions and practices in procedures and prepared reports for all corrective actions.
- Monitored efficient working of all contractors in performing various construction works.
- Performed analysis on various incidents in facility and performed investigations for finding appropriate cause.
- Designed preventative measures to provide support to various administrative supervisors.
- Coordinated with customer personnel and program teams and provided consultation on various safety and health services.
- Ensured compliance of all safety and health program with OSH performance standards.
- Oversaw effective implementation of all training programs and participated in associated meetings.
- Assisted various teams in preparing appropriate presentations for safety and health procedures.

Occupational Health And Safety Specialist
CACI International, Inc., Rolla, MO
March 2003 – April 2006

- Inspected facility and ensured compliance to all safety laws and regulations.
  - Analyzed all Occupational and Safety hazards and assisted various managers and supervisors in providing a safe environment.
  - Participated in conferences and explained purpose of inspections on various equipments and procedures.
  - Evaluated various illness records of company safety programs.
  - Developed and implemented various safety procedures according to required standards.
  - Supervised efficient working of supervisors and managers for safety and occupational health department.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Occupational Science
Southern New Hampshire University, Manchester, NH

Build your Resume Now