
OCCUPATIONAL THERAPIST RESUME

Summary:

A highly talented individual with notable experience in helping patients achieve a satisfied state of life thru intervention services to improve overall health and development, prevent diseases and sustain a healthy physical and mental being; handles modification of interventions in accordance with changes and progress in patient's or client's status, within the scope of healthcare plan and assistance coverage established and agreed by and between the therapist and patient; has remarkable knowledge of therapy principles, theory, methods and their application; has exceptional ability to prepare and maintain accurate records; exceptional ability to understand the role of therapy in the context of the patient's age, total needs perspective and environment.

Professional Experience:

Occupational Therapist January 2007 – Present
New Dimension Clinic, New York

Responsibilities:

- Attended to patients suffering from physical disability, heart ailments, and exposed from occupational hazards.
- Assessed patients with health problems connected with their work.
- Helped patients with physical disabilities using therapeutic activities in order to promote fast recovery.
- Participated in daily functions of the duties of the clinic.
- Treated patients with occupational related diseases and injuries and developed work environment evaluations.

Assistant Occupational Therapist May 2004 – December 2006
New Dimension Clinic, New York

Responsibilities:

- Monitored patients' behavior and reactions to the therapy being performed.
- Assisted in the implementation of therapy and initiated clinical treatment to patients exposed to occupational hazards.
- Helped resolve occupational problems identified connected to the disorders being experienced by the patients.
- Encouraged patients to undergo intensive therapy to quickly increase improvement in their health.
- Observed patients current health conditions and what effects it causes to their physical and mental health.

Intern February 1999 – May 2004
St Joseph Clinic, New York

Responsibilities:

- Attended to patients suffering from physical disability, heart ailments, and exposed from occupational hazards.
- Assessed patients with health problems connected with their work.
- Helped patients with physical disabilities using therapeutic activities in order to promote fast recovery.
- Participated in daily functions of the duties of the clinic.
- Treated patients with occupational related diseases and injuries and developed work environment evaluations.

Assistant Occupational Therapist May 2004 – December 2006
New Dimension Clinic, New York

Education:

Master of Science Degree in Occupational Therapy
University of New York, 1999
Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology
University of New York, 1997

Skills/Certifications:

- Great skills in providing a variety of treatments
- Ability to communicate effectively, verbally and in writing
- Organizational, accurate document recording and bookkeeping skills
- Monitoring, patient assistance and coordination skills
- Proven sound clinical reasoning in treatment planning, implementation and monitoring of patient progress
- Uncommon ability to recognize when standard patient protocols or treatment plans need modification to meet individual patient needs & reports to therapist

Associations/Organizations:

Occupational Therapy Society, Member
American Therapy Association, Member
First Aid Certification, American Red Cross, 2000
CPR Certification, American Heart Association, 2003
Member, American Heart Association
Member, American Red Cross

Build your Resume Now