
Oil Field Engineer Resume

Job Objective

Securing a position as an Oil Field Engineer with company who has a stable environment and room for growth.

Summary of Qualifications:

- Remarkable experience in oil production, oil processing, facilities planning and capital evaluations
 - Thorough understanding of oilfield principles
 - Ability to performing economic evaluations, feasibility studies
 - Ability to prepare requests for budgetary approvals
 - Ability to perform necessary performance reports and analyses
 - Ability to spend extended periods of time at any field location
-

Work Experience:

- Oil Field Engineer, 2007 – Present
 - Citation Oil & Gas Corp, Houston, TX
 - Assisted in the technical development of Capital Programs and Budgets.
 - Developed and coordinated capital program throughout the Company.
 - Coordinated and planned new facilities and major modification of existing facilities.
 - Performed economic evaluations of alternative oil processing and water injection facility configurations.
 - Prepared scoping papers to define capital projects covering new oil processing and water injection facilities.
 - Collaborated with operating organizations, engineering Consultants, project management and corporate planning.
-

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering, 2007, Drexel University, Philadelphia, PA

Build your Resume Now