
Operating Room Nurse Resume

Job Objective

To secure a position as an Operating Room Nurse in a dependable hospital for a long-standing relationship.

Work Experience:

Operating Room Nurse, August 2005 – Present
CyberCoders Nursing & RN Specialists, Washington, DC

- Provided professional nursing care to patients undergoing surgery.
- Responded to surgical emergency requirements such as cardiac, pulmonary, and respiratory failure and hemorrhage.
- Maintained open communication lines and provided care to patient.
- Conducted preoperative and postoperative visits.
- Prioritized care for each patient entering the operating suite.
- Supervised personnel in preparing, sterilizing, and caring for operating room equipment and supplies.

Operating Room Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005
Ocean to Ocean Healthcare, Washington, DC

- Managed surgical procedures during and after major and minor operations.
 - Maintained record of patient history and prepared reports and recovery charts.
 - Provided nursing care for patients within the Operating Room functioning as Admitting Nurse.
 - Obtained patient history and relative information.
 - Supervised completeness and working efficiency of the operative set-up required.
 - Reported and recorded necessary patient's data for hospital and nursing service records.
 - Interpreted operating room policies, rules and regulations to persons participating in care.
 - Educated paramedical members who participated in patients care.
-

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Health Care Management, Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL

Summary of Qualifications:

- Exceptional knowledge of operating room assignments
- Huge knowledge of operating room techniques and management
- Skilled in providing effective nursing services, assessing patient situations and taking effective courses of action
- Familiarity with nursing science, principles, techniques, and procedures for the care of patients
- Strong management and organizational skills
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to discuss operative procedures with patients and inform them of what to expect during surgery

Build your Resume Now