

---

Operations Controller Resume

---

Job Objective

---

Would like to be considered for an Operations Controller at your company where I can be of service to those employees who would be on my team.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Remarkable experience with revenue control and financial reporting
  - Huge knowledge of foodservice, business analysis and strategic planning
  - Familiarity with manufacturing accounting, sales analysis and reporting
  - Good understanding of income statements, balance sheets, and cash flow statements
  - Proficient with SAP, Hyperion, Cognos, POS and MS Office
  - Ability to analyze and forecast business results
  - Analytical, perceptive, and a critical thinker
  - Excellent analytical and organizational skills
-

Professional Experience:

---

Operations Controller
The River Group Inc, Cincinnati, OH
August 2005 – Present

- Managed manufacturing, OEM sourcing and direct material reporting.
- Handled product cost development and corresponded operational reviews.
- Maintained budget and quarterly budget update process.
- Aided financial planning and handled regular business reporting.
- Conducted financial analysis, cost analysis and planning.
- Evaluated operational data and aided operational decisions as well as assisted logistics management.

Operations Controller
Compass Group, Cincinnati, OH
May 2000 – July 2005

- Supervised cash handling procedures and executed analysis for several balance sheet accounts.
  - Evaluated financial results and maintained P/L and balance sheets.
  - Formulated forecasts and budgets and evaluated general ledger and balance sheet.
  - Handled accounting issues and maintained inventory procedures.
  - Outlined financial reports and managed external audit reporting.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Accounting
Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, NC

Build your Resume Now