

---

Oracle SQL Developer Resume

---

Job Objective

---

Seeking a position as Oracle SQL Developer in a reputed organization where I can utilize my knowledge and experience.

---

Highlights of Qualifications:

---

- Remarkable experience in a business intelligence and reporting solutions role
  - Good expertise in multi-dimensional modeling
  - Thorough knowledge of Oracle and BI tools
  - Sound knowledge of translating business requirements into data analysis and reporting solutions
  - Outstanding knowledge of data warehousing, data integration and relational data modeling
  - Advanced Oracle database skills
  - Excellent analytical and problem solving skills
-

Professional Experience:

---

Oracle SQL Developer
Leo, Inc., Jackson, MS
July 2006 – Present

- Managed translating customer requirements into technical specifications.
- Performed data analysis on report requirements and recommended solutions for development.
- Designed and developed analytic and reporting solutions using Oracle PL/SQL and MOD PL/SQL.
- Designed and developed data management applications for reporting solutions using Oracle Application Express.
- Developed reports on relational and multidimensional data sources.
- Developed data warehouse models and processes.
- Designed and developed User Acceptance Testing.

Oracle SQL Developer
Lee Corporation, Jackson, MS
May 2002 – June 2006

- Improved BI System architecture and development process.
  - Documented technical specifications.
  - Created re-useable processes that help implement each solution.
  - Planned, designed, developed, and implemented application systems and enhancements to existing systems to meet current and future needs.
  - Conducted appropriate testing of reports to ensure quality.
-

Education:

---

Bachelor's Degree in Information Systems
Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley, California, CA

Build your Resume Now