

---

ORTHOTIST PROSTHETIST RESUME

---

Summary:

---

A highly respected medical professional who has great knowledge and following in the field of orthotics and prosthetics; excellent skills in time management, diagnosis, treatment, alignment and reconstructions thru measurement, design, fabrication and fitting; ability to design prosthetics to injured and physically-deformed patients; ability to conduct training for undergraduates and junior staff; excellent organizational skills; proficient in computer skills.

---

Professional Experience:

---

Orthotist Prosthetist January 2007 – Present
St Mary's Hospital, New York

---

Responsibilities:

---

Designed specific braces and artificial limbs to patients who lost it to accidents and illnesses.
Helped patients make use of prosthetics in their daily life and coordinated with physical therapists.
Conducted research on different types of materials to be used for the production of prosthetics and artificial limbs.
Fabricated prosthetics to patients to be modeled from the parts they lost due to accident or illness.
Modified plaster casts of prosthetics for use in the construction process and the right types of materials to be used.
Prosthetist May 2004 – December 2006
St. Mary's Hospital, New York

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Designed specific braces and artificial limbs to patients who lost it to accidents and illnesses.
- Helped patients make use of prosthetics in their daily life and coordinated with physical therapists.
- Conducted research on different types of materials to be used for the production of prosthetics and artificial limbs.
- Fabricated prosthetics to patients to be modeled from the parts they lost due to accident or illness.
- Modified plaster casts of prosthetics for use in the construction process and the right types of materials to be used.

Prosthetist May 2004 – December 2006
St. Mary's Hospital, New York

---

Responsibilities:

---

- Designed specific braces and artificial limbs to patients who lost it to accidents and illnesses.
- Helped patients make use of prosthetics in their daily life and coordinated with physical therapists.
- Conducted research on different types of materials to be used for the production of prosthetics and artificial limbs.
- Fabricated prosthetics to patients to be modeled from the parts they lost due to accident or illness.
- Modified plaster casts of prosthetics for use in the construction process and the right types of materials to be used.

Prosthetist May 2004 – December 2006
St. Mary's Hospital, New York

---

Education:

---

Masters Degree in Prosthetics and Orthotics
University of Arizona, 1999
Bachelor of Science in Prosthetics
University of Arizona, 1997

---

Skills/Certifications:

---

- Strong leadership and teamwork attributes
  - Excellent time management skills
  - Proficient in computer skills
  - Knowledge in design specifications of prosthetics
-

Associations/Organizations:

---

American Orthotists Prosthetists Society, Member
National Prosthetists Association, Member

Build your Resume Now