

---

PATHOLOGIST ASSISTANT RESUME

---

Objective:

Seeking the Pathologist Assistant position where I can apply my experience and efficiently contribute to the company's growth.

---

Summary of Skills:

- Basic knowledge of human anatomy, macro surgical techniques
  - Remarkable experience in understanding safety and infection control requirements
  - Proven ability to obtain and prepare tissue for evaluation
  - Ability to prepare and maintain records
  - Ability to use of electronic communications tools and software
  - Sound communication skills both oral and written
  - Effective intrapersonal and interactive skills
-

Work Experience:

Pathologist Assistant
Castle Medical Center, New York, NY
August 2005 to till date

- Assisted with the daily operations of the facility
- Supported the pathologist in performance of autopsies and provided a report on the deceased.
- Ensured quality improvement and assurance activities.
- Conducted inspection preparation to meet relevant guidelines.
- Performed all other duties as assigned.

Pathologist Assistant
Duke University Health System, New York, NY
May 2000 to July 2005

- Managed to select and identify tissue for microscopic study and determined appropriate fixative solutions in which tissue will be maintained.
  - Ensured to triage specimen received from surgery.
  - Maintained records of surgical pathology specimen dissections and dictation.
  - Performed specialized procedures such as frozen sections and decalcification.
  - Managed to remove organs, portions of bone, or other samples of tissues for any specialized study or research.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in a Biological or Allied Health Science
University of Utah, Salt Lake City, UT

Build your Resume Now