

---

Pediatric Endocrinology Nurse Resume

---

Job Objective

To increase the potential of a doctor's office with my excellence as a Pediatric Endocrinology Nurse.

---

Summary of Qualifications:

---

- Immense experience working with a Pediatric surgeon
  - Working knowledge of endocrine system
  - Thorough knowledge of a child's mental and physical aspect of health and illness
  - Ability to provide care to children and adolescents
  - Ability to move and reposition patients
  - Superior skills in dealing with children
  - Excellent communication skills
-

Work Experience:

---

Pediatric Endocrinology Nurse, August 2005 – Present
PracticeMatch Services, LLC, Glencoe, OK

- Planned and implemented appropriate procedures for treating adolescents.
- Maintained compliance with protocols and overall research and clinical objectives.
- Managed to maintain the integrity and quality of the clinical research trial.
- Administered accurate documentation and compute them in a timely fashion.
- Adhered to federal and sponsor regulations and guidelines.
- Ensured that the trial is conducted adhering to Good Clinical Practice Guidelines.

Pediatric Endocrinology Nurse, May 2000 – July 2005
Cook Children's Healthcare, Glencoe, OK

- Managed to perform nursing functions independently.
  - Functioned entirely within the Nursing Department or as part of a medical team.
  - Communicated well with the parents of the patients and managed to comfort them.
  - Coordinated with other members of the medical staff.
  - Maintained accurate medical management such as records of patients.
  - Performed under the authorization and supervision of a physician.
-

Education:

---

B.S in Health Sciences – Advanced Patient Care, Charter Oak State College, New Britain, CT

Build your Resume Now