
Petroleum Economist Resume

Job Objective

A highly knowledgeable and experienced Petroleum Economist looking for employment within your organization where I can add value and bring new ideas.

Highlights of Qualifications:

- Wide experience in monitoring economics for international oil and gas production
 - Immense knowledge of all international petroleum contracts
 - Outstanding ability to develop new economic models
 - Profound ability to maintain relationship with industries and government
 - Ability to work on database management system
 - Ability to complete activities within deadline
 - Wide knowledge of upstream oil & gas business
 - Good understanding of petroleum engineering issues and cost estimation
 - Proficient with economic evaluation package (AIRES, Phd Win) and public production data
-

Professional Experience:

Petroleum Economist
The Confidential Advisor LLC, Viborg, SD
August 2007 – Present

Responsibilities:

- Monitored and applied global upstream of all investment analysis.
- Performed all risk economic evaluations for all upstream projects.
- Prepared reports for all unconventional hydrocarbon reserves.
- Maintained statutory reports and provided update to it.
- Developed business model discussions and prepared petroleum strategies.
- Maintained knowledge of all taxation and fiscal terms for product prices.
- Coordinated with tax advisers and project finance advisers for economic research.
- Interpreted economic results and prepared appropriate papers.

Petroleum Economist
Maxum Petroleum, Inc, Viborg, SD
May 2004 – July 2007

Responsibilities:

- Monitored economic research and prepared contracts for investment plans.
 - Administered all present projects and provided update to documents.
 - Evaluated E&P contracts and assisted in tax plans.
 - Performed regular assessment of production assets.
 - Developed contracts for all natural oil companies.
 - Reviewed all investments for various operational costs.
 - Performed risk analysis and assisted to take appropriate decisions.
-

Education:

Bachelor's Degree in Petroleum Engineering
Western Washington University, Bellingham, WA

Build your Resume Now